Honorable William H. Webster
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Bill:

Back on May 17, 1988, at the Senate Judiciary Committee Authorization hearing, Senator Leahy and I had a discussion concerning his belief about the need for a special outside counsel to review the FBI's involvement in the Iran/Contra matter. The enclosed page of transcript indicates my response was that I would have conversations with you to discuss the procedure that has been utilized at the Agency in like circumstances.

I thought we might discuss this at our scheduled lunch on September 13th and I am sorry I had to cancel that engagement. At our next earliest opportunity, I hope it is convenient for you to discuss that matter with me.

Sincerely,

William S. Sessions
Director
